

KEENAN QUIT? WELL, HARDLY

Youthful City Chamberlain and His Friends Laugh at the Idea of His Giving Up His District Leadership.

Because his district showed a decreased Democratic vote last election day and went the way of other districts in the Republican tidal wave, City Chamberlain Patrick Keenan is not going to resign his leadership. Despite his seventy odd years he is as hale and hearty as ever and has even greater enthusiasm, if possible, for a hot campaign. He is in harness to stay, he says, and while he has a reverence for age and its limitations, Patrick Keenan is not of the kind that quail, his friends declare.

"We need Patrick Keenan in the sixteenth next year and many a year thereafter," said a joyous and enthusiastic Tammany resident of the district to-day, "and 'Pat' Keenan," he added reverently, "is too good of snaking and keeping friends to allow him to get out of political life. The longer he is in it the greater respect people have for him. There was some talk that Mr. Keenan felt so badly over the result of the election in his district that he was going to resign the leadership to a younger man."

"There is no truth to that. We wouldn't let him resign if he wanted to. That's what we think of 'Pat' Keenan."

Will Remain Leader.

City Chamberlain Keenan certainly holds a fast and warm place in the hearts of his constituents and of those in prominent position at the bar, on the bench, and elsewhere, who owe their start in life to his personal efforts.

For two generations a powerful factor in local politics, Keenan has kept his political skirts clean and has never been attacked by even the most rabid reformer. If Keenan ever turned a political trick that would not bear full scrutiny he managed to escape criticism but this fact his friends attribute to his devotion to truth and honesty.

When the City Chamberlain was asked to-day if he had any thought of quitting the leadership of the sixteenth, where he has been a conspicuous figure for years, he said warmly: "Why, bless your heart, I never gave it the first thought. Reverses will come to men in political life as they often come to men engaged in other affairs, but we are accustomed in our district to take the ups and downs of the street. The great reverses which the Democracy sustained last election could not have been stayed by any man except President Roosevelt himself. He created the condition which resulted in his great success. He alone controlled that situation, and his popularity carried the day, even in the strongest Democratic center. It was not lack of organization or lack of foresight in the Democratic party that defeated us. It was just one man's popularity, and the like will not again be seen in this country for—well, it would be hard to say. No, I am not going to resign. I am young enough yet to keep the reins taut," and here the pleasant face of the venerable City Chamberlain wreathed with smiles.

Some of His "Friends."

Men who have arisen from the organization ranks of the sixteenth Assembly District under the tutelage of Patrick Keenan, and who achieved and are enjoying distinction to-day, are numerous. The list may soon be augmented by the addition of Solomon D. Rosenthal, slated for Police Court Magistrate to

WOMAN INJURED BY CAR RIOTERS

Joseph McKenna, of No. 8 East Houston street, and Joseph Rowan, of No. 230 Mott street, caused a riot on a Third avenue surface car early to-day when transfers from the Fourteenth street car station, which they claimed had been given them in a regular way, were questioned.

Alighting from the Fourteenth street car and wanting to go south on Third avenue, they walked down to Thirteenth street. Max Davidson, conductor of the car, refused to accept the transfers, and one of the men, it is alleged, kicked him. Both men carried bottles of milk. One of them hurled a bottle at Davidson, the missile hitting John Kenser, of No. 6 Union street, Brooklyn. The car was crowded, and in the general fight that followed Mrs. M. A. Harris, an aged woman from Buffalo, was knocked down and trampled.

Policemen O'Neil, Phelan and Murphy and Sergt. Ryan, all of the Fifth street station, came. With a free use of clubs they quieted the rioters and arrested McKenna and Rowan, charging them with disorderly conduct.

AMERICAN STAFF MIKADO GUESTS

TOKYO, Jan. 21.—The Emperor to-day received Minister Griseom and the staff of the American Legation in special audience and later entertained them at luncheon.

While the streets of Tokyo were ringing with the news of the riots at St. Petersburg and of the Russian Emperor taking refuge at Tsarskoe-Selo, the Japanese Emperor at the reception and through Minister Griseom, expressed to President Roosevelt his great satisfaction at the cordial relations existing between the two countries. He paid a high compliment to the United States for the courtesy shown to Prince Sadunaru Fushimi during his recent American tour.

In reply Mr. Griseom thanked the Emperor for the interest Japan had shown in the St. Louis Exposition and the friendship manifested by Prince Fushimi on the occasion of his visit.

The Emperor at noon lunched with Minister Griseom, the Legation Staff, Prince Fushimi and a number of Japanese of high rank. The Mikado, who was in high spirits, toasted President Roosevelt and those present, including the Legation Staff.

After the luncheon, Lieut. Irvin V. Gills, an American naval attaché, was presented to the Emperor.

FIREMEN ELECT OFFICERS.

The Uniformed Company of Exempt Firemen of the City of New York has elected the following officers: Robert B. Nooney, foreman; Samuel Daltore, assistant foreman; John B. Liddle, recording secretary; Matthew J. Fogarty, financial secretary; J. Hickey, treasurer, and John W. Wattus, custodian. The company will parade on Washington's Birthday, after which there will be a dinner.

The "Burson" Stocking

Pronounced to Be the Best and Most Comfortable Known Anywhere.

The "Burson" Stocking is attaining a wonderful degree of popularity, and justly so. The demand has been so great that new lots in large quantities are being hurried into the store daily. It is precisely what you expect an ideal stocking to be—smooth inside and out. Fashioned to precisely fit the leg and foot without straining or stretching, and yet be snug. No lumps or bumps or seams or inequalities of any kind.

Shaped by the knitting machine, roomy at the top. "Fashioned" gracefully from calf to ankle, just right as to foot shape and tapered to a toe of exquisite proportion. And without a seam or a knot.

No more perfect stocking can be made.

You can get the "Burson" Stocking in our Stocking Store, Main Floor, or on the Second Floor. Look at them.

Expert demonstrators will explain all the good points of this stocking.

Your Shoes Will Last Just Twice As Long

If you use "SHOE SOAP DRESSING." It is a proven fact that "SHOE SOAP DRESSING" cleans and polishes. It takes none of the "life" out of leather. It maintains the leather in its original state of mellowness and toughness. With every application of Shoe Soap Dressing the dirt and every semblance of hardness disappear from the shoe. Shoes so treated will outwear two pairs neglected or crusted and dried out with the usual dressings. Shoes cleaned with this dressing free of charge.
